NUMB. 2087

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24. 1742.

11:2085.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Flanders.

Petersburgh, Jan. 29.

H. E. Secretary of the Marquis de la Chetardie the French Ambassador, who was sent to Stockholm by the way of Wybourg, is return'd, and reports, that the Court of Sweden will be content to accept far less advantageous Terms than are insisted on in her Declaration of War; and that she is even disposed to make Peace on the Plan of the Treaty of Nystradt. If this may be depended upon, no doubt an Accommodation will quickly follow; for it is certain, the Emperors would gladly terminate the War on honourable Terms.

Petersburgh, Jan. 30. The Dutch Resident M. Swartz, had the 24th a private Audience of the Czarina, in which he presented his new Credentials, and deliver'd a congratulatory Letter from the States General, which had been sent to him in Answer to her Czarish Majesty's Notification of her Accession. The Persian Ambassador's Baggage went away on the 26th, as is said, on 1,500 Sledges for Moscow; and three Troops of the Horse Guards, and a Battalion of the Foot, began their March Yesterday towards that City. The Felt Marshal Lacy and Admiral Golowin, have receiv'd Orders to remain here when the Court goes to Moscow, the first to have the Command of the Troops, the last the Inspection of the Fleet. Vice Admiral Obrian came here from Cronstadt the 23d, and made his Court the next Day to her Majesty. The late President of the College of Commerce, Muskin Puskin, arriv'd here three or four Days ago, and was at Court on Sunday Morning in his long Beard to throw himself at her Majesty's Feet, and presented a Petition to have his Estate return'd him. The new President of the College of Commerce, Knes Ysupoff, who was Vice-Governor of Moscow, is expected from thence every day: He is of Tartar Extraction, and was several Years in France with the young Gentlemen whom Peter the First sent into the Sea Service of that Crown. The Duke of Holstein is expected every day. The Chevalier Crepi arriv'd here last Night.

Copenhagen, Feb. 18. The Abbé le Maire, Minister here from the Court of France, has received a Courier from Paris, with Instructions as to the new Negotiation enter'd on with our Court, and a Cabinet Council was immediately held, but the Resolutions taken therein are not known. The Courier however is still here, and we imagine waits for some Dispatches, and will then continue his Journey to Stockholm, where probably his Arrival is impatiently expected, if, as some suspect, he carries many Bills of Exchange.

Vienna, Feb. 14. Our last Accounts from Moravia import, that the Prussians have begun to commit Hostilities in that Country, and to raise large Contributions. One of our Detachments however has had the good Fortune to defeat one of theirs, to kill 30, and take many more Prisoners. On Advice of some Scirs in Poland, Orders have been dispatch'd to Transilvania, directing the Arriere-Ban to be raised, which will bring 100,000 Men into the Field. General Bruniani who arrived here a few Days ago from Italy, has brought a Confirmation that the King of Sardinia, the Republic of Venice, and the Duke of Modena, are determin'd to declare against any Power attempting to disturb the Repose of Italy. The Enemy in Moravia had form'd a Design against Zauim, where we have a considerable Magazine, but Prince Lobkowitz, who has lately receiv'd a Reinforcement, prevented them, by doubling the Guards posted there.

Dresden, Feb. 15. Our last Advices from Bohemia say, that the French keep the Gates of Prague shut, suffer no Strangers to enter, and discover great Apprehensions at the Approach of the Austrians. The Harmony which reign'd amongst the Allies is in a manner lost.

Dresden, Feb. 25. The 18th in the Morning arriv'd a Courier with the News, that the Saxon and Prussian Troop united the 14th at Budissau, between Gros, Masserisch, and Betisch, and were to attack the Austrians at Igau the Day following; and on the 19th Count Wettensthen, one of his Prussian Majesty's Aid de Camps, arriv'd here, with an Account of the Austrians having abandon'd that Place, without losing a Man, or firing a Gun, having sent before them, towards Pilgram, all their Ammunition and Provision; and it is since affirm'd that they have abandon'd Pilgram likewise; but that Prince Lobkowitz had taken Possession of Turschbrod. There are mercantile Intelligences, that there has been Skirmish between a considerable Party of Saxons, and another of the Austrians, to the great Loss of the former; and that several Waggons of wounded Prussians have been brought to Bresslau, supposed to have been defeated in Upper Silesia by a Body of Hungarians.

Berlin, Feb. 16. We have Advice from Konigsberg, that the Grand Duchels of Russia is safely arrived there with all her Family; and proposes, after a few Days Rest, to continue her Journey to Wolfenbutel.

Paris, Feb. 23. The Court appears daily more and more attentive to what passes in Great Britain, and will leave no Method untried to resume Mr. Bussy's Negotiation there.

Hamburgh, Feb. 27. Sir Cyril Wich, Bart. who is appointed Minister Plenipotentiary from the Court of Great Britain to that of Russia, set out from hence the 24th instant, on his Journey to Petersburgh.

Hague, March 2. The States of Holland have given their Consent to the Petitions that have for some Time been depending from the Council of State, in the Assembly of the States General; one of which was for a third Augmentation of the Land Forces of the Republick, and the others related to the repairing of the Fortifications, furnishing the Magazines, equipping 25, and building as many more Men of War, against this next Summer.

Extract from the Paris A-la-main.

Hague, Feb. 16. According to the last Letters from Vienna, the News of the Election of the Emperor has thrown the Austrians into great Consternation, but it is the King of Sardinia who is likely to feel most heavily the Weight of that Election; when he comes to see all the Pretensions he forms on the Milanese defeated, he will repent too late of not having followed the Example of the King of Prussia at the time he chose his Side; he would then have found no Enemy capable of traversing his Designs or opposing his Enterprizes; at present what Certainty can he have that the Court of Madrid will not cross all his Views, since that Court has always made it a Rule to keep down the House of Savoy, from which it has too often received Umbrage? However it be, his Sardinian Majesty continues to make very extraordinary Preparations, but without discovering any thing of his Designs, which perhaps he does not know himself; the Advantages offered him by the Queen of Hungary in case he will afford her his Assistance, and the critical Conjuncture of Affairs, have thrown him into such a Reverie that he will have enough to do to recover himself; he cannot but see, that if he declares for the Queen of Hungary he will infallibly draw France upon him as an Enemy, who has 20,000 Men on the Frontiers of Dauphine, who only wait their Orders to pass the Alps and make an Irruption into his Dominions, in which Case his Sardinian Majesty would have little Stomach to making Diversions, he would find enough to do to preserve his own Dominions, without carrying his Arms elsewhere; and no doubt he will consider this very attentively.

The Marquis de Fencelon has within these few Days had several Conferences with the Deputies of the States, which have given no small Pain to the Baron de Reischach and Mr. Trevor, who have taken all the Pains they could to discover what pass'd in them, but without Success. Another Foreign Minister thinks that he has discover'd that these Conferences roll'd on a certain Plan wherein this State and the King of Prussia are to be compriz'd; but he is not clear whether any thing pass'd at this Conference relating to a general Pacification, or the Neutrality of the Publick.

In respect to the General Pacification; it does not appear that the present is a proper Time to think of it, while the Austrian Arms make so considerable a Progress in Upper Austria and Bavaria, in spite of all that the Allies can do. A Rescript which the Queen of Hungary published at Ratisbon the latter End of last Month proves sufficiently, that this Princess is very far from intending to accept the Plan of Partition offer'd her by the Allies, she complains bitterly in that Piece of the Conduct of the Electors of Mentz and Saxony, whom she endeavours to blacken; but much more of France, which has found a Way by the Eloquence of the Marshal de Belle Isle, supported by 100,000 Regular Troop, to engage several Powers in a Scheme for extinguishing the House of Austria in order thereby to reduce the Empire under the Slavery of the House of Bourbon, which it would not be easy to shake off; that however, the Queen of Hungary will do all that depends upon her to preserve Germany from a Foreign Yoke, and to deliver all Europe from that shameful Slavery into which France endeavours to plunge her.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the Venereal Disease, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Reliquæ on one Hand, or a venereal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have to their great Joy experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it entirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even venereal Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose, than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble Anti-SYPHILICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

The Universal Family MEDICINE,

Still more and more fam'd, after upwards of 20 Years Success with the Publick.

Is sold by the Author's Appointment, by Mr. King, Printeller, in the Country, near the Royal Exchange; by Mr. Morris, at the Sign of the Duke of Cumberland, in Oldbarn Alley, near Leicester Fields; and by Mr. Hildyard, Bookseller in York; at 3 s. the Bottle Retail.

It is to be taken at any Season of the Year, and is so very agreeable to Young and Old, that Children take it without Trouble, a few Drops being a Day; and so gentle, that it weakens not the most Aged; for it is a safe and effectual Alternative, so be taken in a less Dose than where Purgings is necessary, as Excellence inherent in this Medicine, which is a singular Property well known to the Learned, to be in some Cathartic Medicines.

It is in particular,

A Certain and infallible Cure for the SCURVY, tho' of the longest Standing, and attended with the most aggravated Circumstances (a Distemper so common to English People, that not one in a thousand is wholly exempt from it, and great Numbers are sorely afflicted with it) being a cordial Elixir, peculiarly adapted to that Disease in all its Forms of appearing, from the slightest itching Humour in the Blood, to its utmost or last Efforts on human Nature.

For it is a true Specifick Cordial, that perfectly cures that Distemper by gentle Evacuation, by Stool and Urine, the only sure and effectual Way perfectly to cure the Scurvy, and prevent Relapses (notwithstanding what may be dissent to the contrary) the Truth of which is witnessed to daily, by the many Thousands that have taken this Medicine. It powerfully rectifies the Blood and Juices, that scrophulous Galls are also speedily cured by it; and all Spots, Blotches, Pimples, &c. on the Skin, are quickly and entirely taken off, the Patients made lively and brisk, many chronic Distempers prevented, and a due State of Health secured.

It removes all Pain in the Stomach, helps Digestion, opens Obstructions, and is peculiarly serviceable to Males inclined to, or troubled with the Green Sickness. 'Tis best Medicine in the World to destroy Worms in Children or grown People, and prevent their Return; for it scours away all those rosy, viscid Humours which breed them in their Bowels, and is so well adapted to all Constitutions, that it is deservedly esteemed both in City and Country, the most general Family Medicine that ever was known to preserve Health, and renders no Business or Recreation.

Good Allowance is given Wholesale by Mr. King for ready Money to Country Shopkeepers, &c. to sell again. This Medicine will keep many Years in any Climate.

The Directions given with it are large and full.

If the Son of the late Rev. Joseph Collier, Rector of Hatford in the County of Berks, will apply to the Governor of the House of Correction at Witney in the County of Oxon, he may hear of something to his Advantage; and as he values his own Welfare it behoves him to be expeditious.
